

Bill Summary
1st Session of the 57th Legislature

Bill No.:	SB 371
Version:	INT
Request No.:	947
Author:	Sen. Bice
Date:	01/17/2019

Bill Analysis

SB 371 removes the rebuttable presumption that a child at least twelve years of age possesses an intelligent preference as it relates to the court determining custody and visitation rights. The measure allows the court to consider the stated preference of children at any age.

Prepared by: Kalen Taylor