Bill Analysis

SB 590 authorizes county boards of commissioners to approve a continuing education program for full-time county employees with at least five consecutive years of service. The course must be offered by institutions within the Oklahoma State System of Higher Education and employees must maintain an “A” or “B” average in the course to receive 100% reimbursement. Employees with passing grades shall qualify for a reimbursement of 75% of the course’s cost. An employee participating in the continuing education course must continue to fulfill the responsibilities of his or her position.

House Amendments

House Amendments to SB 590 restores the Title on the measure.
