Research Analysis

The Senate amendment to HB 1709 adds an emergency to the bill.

HB 1709 changes a qualification for continuation of successful adulthood services. The services may continue until twenty-one years of age provided the individual is in the custody of the Department or a federally recognized Indian tribe and in an out-of-home placement at the time of their sixteenth birthday. Current law stipulates that this must occur at the time of their eighteenth birthday.
