Research Analysis

FA1 to HB 2010 defines certain terms. FA1 requires a mobile food vendor to obtain a food establishment license from the local authority which has a population over 500,000. The license will permit the local food vendor to operate in any local authority's jurisdiction and will be recognized by the State Commissioner as a food establishment license. FA1 requires mobile food vendors to follow all state and local laws and regulations governing operations in the jurisdiction where the vendor is operating. Licensed mobile food vendors are allowed to operate in certain locations.

FA1 provides the conditions in which a mobile food vendor should operate. The bill authorizes the State Department of Health to promulgate rules and provides the restrictions in rule adoption. Local authorities are authorized to regulate mobile food vendors with certain conditions. Lastly, FA1 allows any mobile food vendor who has been notified of a possible suspension or revocation of state license to request an administrative hearing and has the right to appeal the decision. The State Department of Health is authorized to issue civil penalties under certain circumstances.
