Author:	Rep. Martinez
Date:	3/8/2022
Impact:	$0

Research Analysis

HB 3484 modifies certain requirements for state agencies entering into a service contract. The measure requires state agencies to list the city, state, and country the services will be provided. Also for any service contract not strictly awarded by lowest price to a company who prepares and produces out of state, the awarding agency's director must provide reasons why an out-of-state company was chosen to provide services.

Fiscal Analysis

HB 3484 in its current form is not expected to have a direct fiscal impact on the state budget or state revenues.
