Bill Analysis

SB 385 modifies wage requirements for establishments entering the Oklahoma Quality Jobs Program as a result of a change-in-control event after January 1, 2024. The measure provides that such establishments must pay 125% of the average county wage, for the county in which the new jobs are located or 100% of the average state wage for application submitted by an establishment on or after January 1, 2024, whichever is greater.
