Bill Analysis

SB 523 appropriates $50 million to the Oklahoma School Security Revolving Fund to administer the Oklahoma School Security Grant Program. The measure directs the funds to be used by private and public schools serving students in grades pre-kindergarten through twelve for the salaries and/or benefits of school security personnel; conducting risk and vulnerability assessments and behavioral threat assessments and implementing modifications based on the results; security technology; updating school building security; and developing emergency response plans with local law enforcement and emergency medical service providers.
