Bill Analysis

SB 1479 modifies revenge porn laws by striking language specifying the person disseminates images of another person without their consent who is at least 18 years of age and that he or she is identifiable. The measure also removes language relating to the intent of the person disseminating the images. Dissemination of any image of a person in a sexual act shall require the effective consent of the depicted person. The maximum penalty for conviction is increased from 4 to 5 years. The measure creates a felony for any person convicted for disseminating 3 or more images within a 6-month period. Persons convicted of such dissemination shall be subject to a term of imprisonment not to exceed 10 years.
