Bill Analysis

SB 835 requires any board proposing to take non-rulemaking action that has anticompetitive effects to submit the proposed action to the Secretary of State for review and confirmation that the action is enforcing a clearly articulated and affirmatively expressed state policy. The measure directs the Secretary to review the action within 60 days. The proposing board shall follow the Secretary's recommendations. Any deviation from the recommendations shall qualify as misconduct and subject the board members to removal for cause by the appointing authority. The measure outlines what shall not constitute an anticompetitive effect.
